About KASK

The Company

Founded in 2004, KASK is an Italian company dedicated to the design, development and manufacturing of helmets.

While best known for our cycling helmets, we innovate and lead in areas across skiing, mountaineering, climbing, equestrianism, rescue teams and safety at work. Our mission is to offer products with a perfect balance between technological excellence, functionality, safety and an attractive Made in Italy design.

KASK cycling helmets for use by all kinds of riders across all of disciplines – road, mountain bike, triathlon, track, cyclocross, commuting and urban – and KASK is proud of its sponsorship of, and development in conjunction with, many leading teams and athletes.

These include road teams: quadruple Tour de France winning WorldTour Team Sky road team; UCI Continental Tour team JLT Condor; and professional women's teams including Cervélo-Bigla Pro Cycling, Wiggle High5 Pro Cycling, Lares Waowdeals and Team Hitec Products.

Professional triathletes include Chris McDonald, Michelle Vesterby, Asa Lundstrom and Leanda Cave. KASK proudly sponsors the German Centurion Vaude mountain bike team, Focus XC, US MTB star Sonya Looney, 3 Rox Racing and in cyclocross Jeremy Powers and the Aspire Racing team.

In 2016 KASK launch the new KOO brand, dedicated to our cycling sunglasses collection.

Completely made in Italy, the best quality of the KOO sunglasses is also guaranteed by the collaboration with Zeiss®.

All KASK products go through painstaking research, development, design and testing processes to ensure we produce the best possible for you.
